NO JURY YET!

A Special Bailiff Appointed to Summons Jurors in the Cronin Case--New York Strike.

CHICAGO, Sept. 30.—The efforts to secure a jury in the Cronin case were resumed this morning. NEW HAVEN ENTERPRISE.

More Gas Wells and a System of Water Works for the Town.

The residents of New Haven, especially the financial element, are determined to pursue further investigations for natural gas. Another well will be commenced at once, which, if it turns out with results equal to the first one, will furnish a supply that will warrant piping.

The flowing wells at New Haven are continuous. The volume of water from two or three wells would be enough to supply a system of water works and money is now being raised for piping purposes.

New Haven is enjoying a nice little boom of its own.

The K. of L.

A MAN DYING.

A Crowd of Fort Wayneites Contribute to a Benefit for a Man Suffering and Needy.

A man named Lahey, whose humble home is at New Haven, Ind., was employed until recently in a bucket factory at a small town east on the Fort Wayne road.

One night Mr. Lahey was brought home, enduring the intensity of pain from a fearful scalding he received by being preticipated into a vat of hot water. Since then the unfortunate man has been in constant agony and his prolonged life has been a source of wonderment, even to the physicians.

The resources of the family became exhausted and Mr. Dan. Shay, of the the railroad offices at New Haven, with several others of that place conceived a benefit supper which was given last Saturday evening at Stock's hall. The affair was a big success, between $200 and $300 being netted for the Lahey family.

A large number from this city were present and contributed freely, among the number being Messrs. A. F. Glutting, Capt. J. H. Rohan, Dennis Gorman, John B. Monning, Ed. Clausmeier, Sheriff George H. Viberg, J. C. Peltier, Wm. W. Plumadore, Chas. Bolger, D. F. McCarthy, Deputy City Clerk John Kelly, Deputy City Treasurer Tom Houlihan, Bird Wiley, and others.

During the evening there were two voting contests, one for a gold headed cane, and the other for a silk umbrella. The cane contest was between Henry Dawkins and Justin J. Ray, and was won by Dawkins. The umbrella contest was between Miss Mary Schnelker and Miss Clara Helmick, and was won by Miss Schnelker.

THE SENTINEL not long ago gave publicity to the rumor that Mr. W. W. Worthington, ex-superintendent of the Fort Wayne, Cincinnati & Louisville road, would be tendered a position on a southern road. To-day we are able to give an authentic statement that such was the case.

THE SENTINEL has learned on good authority that Mr. Worthington assumes to-day the high position of general manager of a branch line being built down there and he has his headquarters at Wilmington, N. C., where he will reside permanently. He will sell his fine residence property in this city, negotiations having already been opened for the disposal of the same.

THE SENTINEL regrets exceedingly to see Mr. Worthington depart from Fort Wayne and extends best wishes with a hearty good will.

The venerable Benjamin F. Kimball was reported lying at the point of death to day. He is an old and well known resident of this city, having come here in the forties. He is the father of Miss Laura Kimball, of the public schools, and others.

IT is not easy for the imagination to conceive of a real battle without either noise or smoke, yet the invention of the new powder used in the sham fight at Spandau, in Germany, promises to bring such a revolution. The reports of the battle say that no smoke was visible at a distance of 300 yards and no sound was heard, save a slight tapping. An unseen foe provided with this powder might keep up a slaughter for some time before even its whereabout was ascertained. A battle with this powder used by both sides would be a silent butchery, with each side unshielded by a kindly curtain of smoke and with no deep roar of cannon and shrill report of rifles to distract the attention of the soldiers from the deadly hail of lead and iron. The cause which the Universal Peace Society has at heart ought certainly to receive a boom if silent, smokeless powders come into general use.

THE Shah of Persia spent a long time in the Louvre in Paris, sketching the crowns of Louis XV. and Napoleon I. and studying the diamonds and brilliants. He also watched the painters at work copying from celebrated paintings, and patted some of the artists on their shoulders, saying, approvingly: "Very well done! very good!"

MURDEROUS ASSAULT.

A Young Son of J. W. Snyder, of Sheldon, Thought to Be Dying From a Blow on the Head.

Yesterday afternoon the young son of J. W. Snyder, of Sheldon, was viciously attacked by George Parker, of the same place, and is thought to be dying from the effects of the injury.

The blow was effected with a heavy walking stick. It appears that young Snyder provoked Parker, who is a man about thirty-five years of age, when the latter raised his cane, and without warning dealt a stunning blow, which felled his victim to the ground.

When picked up Snyder was insensible and he remained in that condition all of last night, although Dr. Ruhl exercised every known means to restore him.

The skull is not fractured, but the concussion, it is thought, may prove fatal.

Sheriff Viberg and Deputy Tom Wilkinson instituted a search yesterday for Parker but he had skipped for parts unknown.

EATING VS. DRINKING.

We are corrected for saying that the French-Canadians eat pea soup. This correction proceeds from Hamilton, where we infer they drink pea soup. It depends upon the kind of pea soup. You can drink the kind they serve in the artistocratic mansions and palatial hotels of Hamilton, because it has no peas in it, those vulgar vegetables having been removed before it gets to the table. But you can't drink the good, old-fashioned pea soup that the habitants and other humble people eat, because it is all peas. You might as well talk about quaffing a flowing bowl of porridge.—Toronto Globe.

E. A. K. HACKETT, Editor and Proprietor.

MONDAY, SEPT. 30, 1889.

A HEAVY rain would be a great blessing just now.

THE month of falling leaves—October—commences to-morrow.

THERE is a disaffection in the ranks of the colored republicans of Ohio and many of them will vote against Foraker for governor this fall.

THE reports of the escape of Reimund Holzhey, the Gogebic stage and train robber, as telegraphed from Bessemer to afternoon papers, last Friday, was entirely baseless. Holzhey is still in Bessemer jail, and there is no likelihood of his escape. The telegram sent the afternoon papers was a "fake" of the rankest kind. Great excitement was caused by the finding of two small steel saws in his cell, and this circumstance doubtless led to the jail delivery story.

REV. CALVIN RUST, of Sommerset, O., occupied the pulpit of Rev. A. K. Zartman, at the Grace Reformed church last evening and preached from the topic, "The Vision From the Cross." It was an eloquent effort and held his audience interested listeners to the close. The young divine is a son-in-law of Mr. and Mrs. C. D. Piepenbrink, of this city, and with his wife is visiting here for a few days. He is a gifted pulpit orator and has a bright future before him in the ministry.

THE Y. M. C. A.

The City department of the Young Men's Christian association is showing renewed activity. The attendance at the Sunday afternoon meetings is increasing, and the future of the organization has an encouraging look. At the meeting yesterday afternoon the attendance was larger than it has been for some time, a noticeable feature being the large number of young men present.

The services were conducted by Mr. C. B. Shivers, a young man who spoke earnestly and interestingly on the theme, "The Fruits of Faith," followed in the after meeting on the same line by several in the audience.

Secretary Bower is putting the young men to the front and is selecting them to lead the meetings. The idea is probably a good one and will result in giving renewed interest and activity to the Y. M. C. A. work. Christian workers should interest themselves in the meetings and work of this association and do all they can to help it along. Its work in no way conflicts with that of the churches. It is in fact a grand auxiliary to them, reclaiming and converting young men whose names are afterwards enrolled on the membership list of some one of the churches of the city.

THE UTAH COMMISSION.

The annual report of the Utah commission has been received at Washington by Secretary Noble. Touching the question of polygamy, the report says: "Polygamy is not, at the present time, openly practiced, except in a few remote and out-of-the-way places, but the non-Mormon element insists that plural marriages are solemnized clandestinely and practiced secretly in the larger centers, and throughout the territory. This may or may not be true. The commission neither affirms nor denies it in the absence of positive evidence. Doubtless many members of the Mormon church have never practiced and never intend to practice polygamy, and perhaps many of them, per se, do not believe in the practice, but, from the stand point of their faith and creed, they accept it as a revelation from God, through the prophet, seer and revealer, Joseph Smith, ratified and approved by their great president, Brigham Young; and that whoever desires to do so should have the right to comply with this ordinance of the church."

All laws forbidding the practice of polygamy, the report continues, the Mormons pronounce unconstitutional. There are grounds for belief, it is stated, that polygamy is still taught by the church as a saving ordinance, and that those who practice it are assured of a higher exaltation in heaven than those who content themselves with one wife.

Extracts are given from Mormon papers showing that they still advocate polygamy. That the teachings and practice of polygamy have not been discontinued, as it is claimed by some, is proven, the report says, by the fact that since September 1, 1888, there have been in the territory of Utah 357 convictions for bigamy, adultery, fornication and unlawful cohabitation—only two for bigamy.

"If plural marriages are now celebrated," says the report. "It is done in the secret chambers of the temple. If polygamy is practiced it is with the secrecy with which the burglar guards his house-breaking, and the thief his larcenies." Those who are convicted of polygamy segard themselves, and are so regarded by their friends, as martyrs, and think it no disgrace to be sent to the penitentiary.

The commission, in view of the present condition of the territorty as regards polygamy, does not think that Utah should be admitted as a state. "Should it be," the commission says, "it would not be long before the Gentile element, with its advanced civilization, its trade and its traffic, would be driven from the territory, and the Mormon theoracy be made supreme."

In concluding the report the commission says that congress should take no backward, or even wavering step in the enforcement of the laws against polygamy. The report is signed by G. I. Godfrey, chairman; R. S. Robertson and Alvin Saunders.

"TABERNACLE OF THE PEOPLE."

The Laying of the Corner Stone for the Enlarged First Baptist Church—Some Historic Facts.

Yesterday was a memorable one in the history of the First Baptist church of this city.

It was the occasion of the laying of the corner stone of their enlarged house of worship on West Jefferson street.

The edifice was built in 1867 during the pastorate of Rev. George Stevens, and although one of the largest Protestant churches in the city, it was too small to seat the congregation worshipping there.

The improvements now being made to the church will cost $8,000, and the audience room, when completed, will seat 1,600 people. It will be a handsome edifice and will be known as the "Tabernacle of the People," which inscription will be cut in stone and appear across the front of the building.

The laying of the corner stone took place yesterday forenoon, commencing at 11 o'clock. The exercises were brief and interesting. After an anthem by the choir, prayer by the pastor and a hymn sung by the congregation, an address appropriate to the occasion, "The Significance of Corner Stone Laying" was delivered by the pastor, Rev. S. A. Northrop, from the text, "What Mean Ye by These Stones."

This was followed by the laying of the corner stone and depositing of a Bible, articles of faith of the Baptist denomination, with names of the membership, the Indiana Baptist, of Indianapolis, the Journal and Messenger, of Cincinnati; the Standard, of Chicago, the Christian Herald, of Detroit; the Gazette, THE SENTINEL, the News and the Journal, of Fort Wayne, by Deacons Sibrey, Carter, Polhamus and Gavin, assisted by Trustees Ferguson, Mills and McMahon.

Appropriate words in behalf of the deacons were then spoken by Mr. E. G. Anderson, followed by Mr. A. H. Philley. Mr. John M. Wort then spoke in behalf of the teachers, Mr. E. W. Lewis, superintendent, in behalf of the Sunday school teachers, and floral and fruit offerings for the corner stone were made by the Misses Belle Johnson, Chrissie Davis, Addie Davis, Fanny Lowry and Kittie Polhamus, each of the young ladies accompaning the offerings with a few appropriate words. A hymn by the choir, the doxology by the congregation and the benediction by the pastor closed the exercises.

HISTORY OF THE CHURCH.

The history of the Baptists in Fort Wayne dates back to 1820, when Rev. Isaac McCoy, under the appointment of the Baptist Triennial convention, came as a missionary to the Miami and Pottawatamia tribes of Indians, whose reservations were then located in this vicinity. In 1822, re-inforced by Rev. John Sears, who came as missionary to the Ottawas, he organized the first Baptist congregation in Fort Wayne. It had on its membership roll the names of eight whites, two Indians and one black man.

This primitive congregation was shortlived. Revs. McCoy and Sears, as missionaries, were called to other fields. The church work was left in charge of a brother of Rev. Sears and his death a few months afterward led to a disorganization of the congregation, the members worshipping with other denominations. This continued until 1837, when the congregation was reorganized with the following members signing the church roll: Richard Worth, Elizabeth Worth, John Fairfield, Jane Fairfield, William Worth, Sarah Swop, Hannah Worth, Meriam Sawtelle, Ann Archer and Elizabeth Morgan, to which list a few days afterwards was added several others, among whom was Ann Girrard.

Rev. Tinsdale was the first pastor. He was followed by Revs. William Corbin and William Cox in short pastorates and in October, 1841, Rev. William Gildersleve was secured at a salary of $300 a year. During his ministry a frame church was built on a lot donated by Samuel Hanna, which was moved in 1846 to the lot at the corner of Berry and Clinton streets, Revs. J. H. Dunlap, George Sleeper and H. D. Mason serving as pastors in succession.

In 1850 Rev. J. D. Meeson became pastor and afterwards came Rev. U. B. Miller, C. W. Rees, Stephen Wilkins and in 1861 Dr. G. K. Stevens, under whose ministry, in 1867, the church edifice on West Jefferson street, now being enlarged, was built. He was followed in 1869 by Dr. J. R. Stone and in 1881 by Rev. Stephen A. Northrop, the present pastor.

When Pastor Northrop came here the congregation numbered 190. To-day it has a total membership of 790 and is one of the most prosperous church organizations in the city. Much of this wonderful growth is due to his earnest work. He is a man who "never lets any grass grow under his feet." Always busy, always pleasant in his pastoral labors, he is constantly making friends and working for the interest of his church. Yesterday was a proud day for him.

IT WON'T BAKE BREAD.—In other words, Hood's Sarsaparilla will not do impossibilities. Its proprietors tell plainly what it has done, submit proofs from sources of unquestioned reliability, and ask you frankly if you are suffering from any disease or affection caused or promoted by impure blood or low state of the system, to try Hood's Sarsaparilla. The experience of others is sufficient assurance that you will not be disappointed in the result.

Interested People.

Advertising a patent medicine in the peculiar way in which the proprietor of Kemp's Balsam for Coughs and Colds does is indeed wonderful. He authorizes all druggists to give those who call for it a sample bottle Free, that they may try it before purchasing. The large bottles are 50c and $1.00. We certainly would advise a trial. It may save you from consumption.

THERE are still over 10,000,000 square miles of districts in various heathen lands, where missionaries thus far have never entered.

MRS. LUCY PARSONS insists so often that she doesn't care whether she dies in bed or on the scaffold that we are half inclined to believe her. But supposing she doesn't care—what of it? Surely nobody else does.

The True Elixir Of Life Hood's Sarsaparilla

Hood's Sarsaparilla purifies the blood, builds up weak and debilitated systems, gives strength to weakened nerves, overcomes that tired feeling, tones the digestive organs, invigorates and regulates the kidneys and liver, expels disease and gives vigorous health. Young people say: "It is the best medicine we ever took." Old people say: "It makes us feel young again."

You should read THE CHICAGO DAILY NEWS because you can afford it. Price doesn't stand in the way. It's really the cheapest thing on earth. One cent means practically nothing—until you spend it. Then you may make it mean a great deal, according as you invest it. A thing is cheap if it costs little, and is worth much. THE DAILY NEWS is like a telegraph from the whole world to your brain. To keep it in constant working order costs you but one cent a day. That's why it's cheap—because it renders a great service for an insignificant price.

Remember—Its circulation is 220,000 a day—over a million a week—and it costs by mail 25 cts. a month, four months $1.00,—one cent a day.

[illegible] world more [illegible]an long life, yet the [illegible] people put off caring for [illegible] health—not because they are really careless, but because we live our lives at such a pace we have not time to give the subject sufficient thought until we receive a reminder in the shape of a severe illness.

Then, too, we are constantly bewildered by the various schools of medicine, and the physicians who represent them, and often blunder in our choice of a doctor.

If people only knew that the very best health-keeper, life-preserver and disease preventer that has yet been discovered, is simmered down into a concentrated and very palatable form in the shape of New Style Pleasant Taste Vinegar Bitters, they would not hesitate a moment to try it.

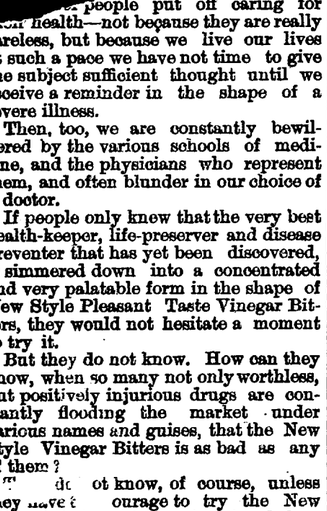

But they do not know. How can they know, when so many not only worthless, but positively injurious drugs are constantly flooding the market under various names and guises, that the New Style Vinegar Bitters is as bad as any of them?

They do not know, of course, unless they have the courage to try the New Style. It straightens out a tangled-up system in a very short while, and those who buy it once buy it always.

Why don't you try it, reader? It is sold but by a responsible house, and is exactly as represented. It costs but a dollar for a very large bottle. Try it and you will never be so glad of anything in your life. Your druggist may not have it, but he will order it for you. Be sure it says New Style Pleasant Taste on carton and bottle before you take it. Try it, and you will feel happier than if you had found a gold mine, for it really is a mine—of health.

THE MAHONING ROAD.

The Locomotives on It Will Be Steaming Into This City in November, So it is Said, Anyhow.

Every few days the question is put to our railroad reporter, "How is the Mahoning railroad getting along?"

It is a hard one to answer, for no person seems to know or is willing to give any definite information about it.

The road has had a peck of trouble—a bushel of it in fact—in Ohio, and has been in the courts for months on account of its financial embarassments, but this dispatch from Ottawa, Ohio, is encouraging and we give it for what it is worth:

"The New York, Mahoning & Western railroad is finished in this county from the Hancock county line to Glandorf, a distance of over fourteen miles and the good work of constructing the track of the railroad goes bravely on and it will be finished to Fort Wayne, Ind., its western terminal by the last of November at a cost of $60,000; the amount expended for building the railroad through this county being $24,000, the distance of the railroad being twenty-four miles. It is a solidly built railroad and when finished it will shorten the route from Chicago to New York, 100 miles less than the other railroads. From Fort Wayne the New York, Mahoning & Western makes a connection with some other railroad which goes on to Chicago."

Then here is another from Findlay, Ohio, which throws more light on the subject: "C. N. Haskell, of Ottawa, who is well known in Fort Wayne on account of his connection with the Mahoning road, has commenced suit in this county against the firm of Johnson, Fellows & Co., of New York, for $31,500. The plaintiff claims that when the above firm purchased the above road they agreed to pay off all indebtedness, and at this time the road owed him the above amount. The above firm is a very wealthy one, and the suit will prove of great interest and be hotly contested."

"Give Him $2 and Let Him Guess."

We once heard a man complain of feeling badly and wondered what ailed him. A humorous friend said, "Give a doctor $2 and let him guess." It was a cutting satire on some doctors who don't guess right. You need not guess what ails you when your food don't digest, when your bowels and stomach are inactive, and when your head aches every day, and you are languid and easily fatigued. You are bilious, and Dr. Pierce's Purgative Pellets will bring you out all right. Small, sugar coated, easy to take. Of druggists.

Christie, was severely, but not dangerously burned, yesterday afternoon about 4 o'clock. It seems that Mamie was playing with a neighboring little girl, and by some means they procured matches, with which Mamie's clothes were set on fire. Her clothes were nearly all burned off as high as the waist, and she is burned to a blister from the knees to the waist. Dr. Allen was called and dressed the burns. He reports her as quite comfortable today, considering the nature of her injury.

[illegible], MENAGERIE, HIPPODROME,

Wild West, Fun, Glory, Rain, Mud, Music, Parade and a Grand Banquet Mark Forepaugh's Visit.

This afternoon Adam Forepaugh's all feature show gave a performance at the jail flats.

This circus day was not exceptional to the general rule of crowded streets and the adjuncts thereof, including music, hilarity, fun, peanuts, toy balloons, etc.

The parade started about 10:30 o'clock and was witnessed by thousands of people. The inclemency of the weather caused Adam Forepaugh, jr., the manager to order out only a portion of his pageant but that portion was admired by the multitudes that blocked the sidewalks and almost every available eminence along the line of march.

The tents were well filled this afternoon. To-night it is supposed the vast seating capacity under the canvass will be packed.

Appropriate to the question is mention of a grand banquet given last even at Hotel Wayne. It was the twenty-sixth annual testimonial reception given by the members of the Great Forepaugh Social club and is tendered to the members of the big aggregation. Through the courtesy of Mr. and Mrs. John I. Boyle, press agent, a SENTINEL reporter found himself seated among the circus lights, and was a devoted auditor to some neat speeches, toasts and responses. Among those present were the following, some having been on the bills for twenty-five years and more:

Mr. and Mrs. Adam Forepaugh, Adam Forepaugh, jr., R. C. Campbell, general agent, W. C. Boyd, Miss Nelly Montrose, Miss Yates, Archie Daily, Orwin Hollis, James Jordan, Arthur Wood, Bert Johnson, S. H. Semon, Jas. B. Macks, T. J. Ford, Tony Lowarde, John Purvis, Judd Webb, Charles Watson, Harry Enoch, Charles Warner, H. D. Goetshius, Phil Gibbons, James Donahue, Rod Harris, the Eugene Bros. R. Kelly, J. Ashby, the three Marvelles, Archie, Edward and Dan, Wm. Wilson, the three Cornellas, Pete, Henry and Williams, Rome Emery, Patsy Forepaugh, Wm. Moore, Tote Seegrest, Otho Twigg, M'lle. Sivado, Miss Sadie Connolly, Frank Goldie, Miss Sallie St. Clair, Mr. Harbeck and Mrs. Harbeck, Mr. and Mrs. Lew White, H. Fulton, J. McNulty, C. Z. Duke, Ed. Collins, John J. Cohill, Leut. Allen, Frank Nelson, Robbie Davis, Will Warner, M. Gardner, James Schrockley. There were sixty people in all at Mine Host McKinnie's tables.

The season of the circus opened at Philadelphia, April 22, and will close next Saturday, at Alliance, Ohio, making the season in twenty-four weeks, giving 288 performances.

One of the Forepaugh trains was wrecked at Scarsboro, Iowa, September 19, causing a damage to the show of nearly $20,000 and badly injuring two canvassmen. The Cleopatra barge—worth alone $20,000—the Globe and the English Bell chariots and several lion cages were completely ruined, but the animals were saved uninjured. The cooking utensils were also lost. Adam Forepaugh, who was on the train himself, attributes the accident to carelessness on the part of the railroad employes and he will probably bring suit for damages.

MEMOIR OF B. F. RICE.

A Brief Biography of a Man Who Lived in Fort Wayne More Than Fifty Years.

(Communicated)

On Sabbath morning, September 22, 1889, Benjamin F. Rice passed quietly away from the companionship of earth to join the vast multitude of saved upon the other shore.

He had passed the alloted period of human life, dying in his 73rd year. He was born in Culpepper county, Virginia, September 9, 1807.

In his seventeenth year he came with his parents to Carrell county, Ohio, afterwards moving from there to Adams county, Indiana. In 1837 he moved to the vicinity and within the limits of this city. In August, 1839, he was united to Mary Kinsey and had just passed his golden marriage anniversary. Mr. Rice by the exercise of diligence in business and prudence in investment, became the possessor of a large fortune which will now be managed by his excellent wife and at her decease, Mrs. J. Grier will become heir, she being the only child.

Early in his life Mr. Rice connected himself with the M. E. church and was soon promoted to official relation, serving the church for many years as leader, steward and trustee.

In the death of this estimable citizen and quiet consistent Christian, we feel that we have left us an example that is worthy of imitation and in his death the Wayne street Methodist Episcopal church, of which the deceased was a member, has lost one of its most aged and honored members.

Indications.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 30.—Indiana—Rain; southwesterly winds; no change in temperature.

Mr. E. M. Ferris, is one of the oldest members of the Baptist church in this city. He has been an active member of the denomination for over fifty years. Yesterday Deacon Ferris participated in the corner stone laying exercises of the First Baptist church, as did also Deacon Nathan Sibrey, one of the old members.

Mr. John Hanna, of the Olds' offices, while riding a bicycle Saturday afternoon, was run down by L. C. Heck, the cigar manufacturer, and his wheel was totally wrecked. Mr. Hanna has retained Mr. H. C. Hanna as counsel, and says he will enter suit for $150 damages.

A Crowd of Fort Wayneites Contribute to a Benefit for a Man Suffering and Needy.

A man named Lahey, whose humble home is at New Haven, Ind., was employed until recently in a bucket factory at a small town east on the Fort Wayne road.

One night Mr. Lahey was brought home, enduring the intensity of pain from a fearful scalding he received by being precipitated into a vat of hot water. Since then the unfortunate man has been in constant agony and his prolonged life has been a source of wonderment, even to the physicians.

The resources of the family became exhausted and Mr. Dan. Shay, of the the railroad offices at New Haven, with several others of that place conceived a benefit supper, which was given last Saturday evening at Stock's hall. The affair was a big success, between $200 and $300 being netted for the Lahey family.

A large number from this city were present and contributed freely, among the number being Messrs. A. F. Ghiting, Capt. J. H. Robbins, Dennis Gorman, John B. Monning, Ed. Clausmeier, Sheriff George H. Viberg, J. C. Peltier, Wm. W. Plimadore, Chas. Bolger, D. F. McCarthy, Deputy City Clerk John Kelly, Deputy City Treasurer Tom Houlihan, Bird Wiley, and others.

During the evening there were two voting contests, one for a gold headed cane, and the other for a silk umbrella. The cane contest was between Henry Dawkins and Justin J. Ray, and was won by Dawkins. The umbrella contest was between Miss Mary Schneider and Miss Clara Helmick, and was won by Miss Schneider.

W. W. Worthington Gets a Fine Official Position on a Southern Road.

THE SENTINEL not long ago gave publicity to the rumor that Mr. W. W. Worthington, ex-superintendent of the Fort Wayne, Cincinnati & Louisville road, would be tendered a position on a southern road. To-day we are able to give an authentic statement that such was the case.

It is not easy for the imagination to conceive of a real battle without either noise or smoke, yet the invention of the new powder used in the sham fight at Spandau, in Germany, promises to bring such a revolution. The reports of the battle say that no smoke was visible at a distance of 300 yards and no sound was heard, save a slight tapping. An unseen foe provided with this powder might keep up a slaughter for some time before even its whereabout was ascertained. A battle with this powder used by both sides would be a silent butchery, with each side unshielded by a kindly curtain of smoke and with no deep roar of cannon and shrill report of rifles to distract the attention of the soldiers from the deadly hail of lead and iron. The cause which the Universal Peace Society has at heart ought certainly to receive a boom if silent, smokeless powders come into general use.

The Shah of Persia spent a long time in the Louvre in Paris, sketching the crowns of Louis XV. and Napoleon I. and studying the diamonds and brilliants. MURDEROUS ASSAULT.

A Young Son of J. W. Snyder, of Sheldon, Thought to Be Dying From a Blow on the Head.

Yesterday afternoon the young son of J. W. Snyder, of Sheldon, was viciously attacked by George Parker, of the same place, and is thought to be dying from the effects of the injury.

The blow was effected with a heavy walking stick. It appears that young Snyder provoked Parker, who is a man about thirty-five years of age, when the latter raised his cane, and without warning dealt a stunning blow, which felled his victim to the ground.

When picked up Snyder was insensible and he remained in that condition all of last night, although Dr. Reid exercised every known means to restore him.

The skull is not fractured, but the concussion, it is thought, may prove fatal.

Sheriff Viberg and Deputy Tom Wilkinson instituted a search yesterday for Parker but he had skipped for parts unknown.

EATING VS. DRINKING.

We are corrected for saying that the French-Canadians eat pea soup. This correction proceeds from Hamilton, where we infer they drink pea soup. It depends upon the kind of pea soup. You can drink the kind they serve in the artistocratic mansions and palatial hotels of Hamilton, because it has no peas in it, these vulgar vegetables having been removed before it gets to the table. But you can't drink the good, old-fashioned pea soup that the habitants and other humble people eat, because it is all peas. You might as well talk about quaffing a flowing bowl of porridge.—Toronto Globe.

MONDAY, SEPT. 30, 1889.

A HEAVY rain would be a great blessing just now.

THE month of falling leaves—October—commences to-morrow.

THERE is a disaffection in the ranks of the colored republicans of Ohio and many of them will vote against Foraker for governor this fall.

THE reports of the escape of Beimund Holzhey, the Geyserville stage and train robber, as telegraphed from Bessemer to afternoon papers, last Friday, was entirely baseless. Holzhey is still in Bessemer jail, and there is no likelihood of his escape. The telegram sent the afternoon papers was a "fake" of the rankest kind. Great excitement was caused by the finding of two small steel saws in his cell, and this circumstance doubtless led to the jail delivery story.

REV. CALVIN RUST, of Sommerset, O., occupied the pulpit of Rev. A. K. Zartman, at the Grace Reformed church last evening and preached from the topic, "The Vision From the Cross." It was an eloquent effort and held his audience interested listeners to the close. The young divine is a son-in-law of Mr. and Mrs. C. D. Piepenbrink, of this city, and with his wife is visiting here for a few days. He is a gifted pulpit orator and has a bright future before him in the ministry.

THE Y. M. C. A.

The City department of the Young Men's Christian association is showing renewed activity. The attendance at the Sunday afternoon meetings is increasing, and the future of the organization has an encouraging look. At the meeting yesterday afternoon the attendance was larger than it has been for some time, a noticeable feature being the large number of young men present.

The services were conducted by Mr. C. B. Shivers, a young man who spoke earnestly and interestingly on the theme, "The Fruits of Faith," followed in the after meeting on the same line by several in the audience.

Secretary Bower is putting the young men to the front and is selecting them to lead the meetings. The idea is probably a good one and will result in giving renewed interest and activity to the Y. M. C. A. work. Christian workers should interest themselves in the meetings and work of this association and do all they can to help it along. Its work in no way conflicts with that of the churches. It is in fact a grand auxiliary to them, reclaiming and converting young men whose names are afterwards enrolled on the membership list of some one of the churches of the city.

THE UTAH COMMISSION.

The annual report of the Utah commission has been received at Washington by Secretary Noble. Touching the question of polygamy, the report says: "Polygamy is not, at the present time, openly practiced, except in a few remote and out-of-the-way places, but the non-Mormon element insists that plural marriages are solemnized clandestinely and practiced secretly in the larger centers, and throughout the territory. This may of may not be true. The commission neither affirms nor denies it in the absence of positive evidence. Doubtless many members of the Mormon church have never practiced and never intend to practice polygamy, and perhaps many of them, per se, do not believe in the practice, but, from the stand point of their faith and creed, they accept it as a revelation from God, through the prophet, seer and revealer, Joseph Smith, ratified and approved by their great president, Brigham Young; and that whoever desires to do so should have the right to comply with this ordinance of the church."

All laws forbidding the practice of polygamy, the report continues, the Mormons pronounce unconstitutional. There are grounds for belief, it is stated, that polygamy is still taught by the church as a saving ordinance, and that those who practice it are assured of a higher exaltation in heaven than those who content themselves with one wife.

Extracts are given from Mormon papers showing that they still advocate polygamy. That the teachings and practice of polygamy have not been discontinued, as it is claimed by some, is proven, the report says, by the fact that since September 1, 1888, there have been in the territory of Utah 357 convictions for bigamy, adultery, fornication and unlawful cohabitation—only two for bigamy.

"If plural marriages are now celebrated," says the report. "It is done in the secret chambers of the temple. If polygamy is practiced it is with the secrecy with which the burglar guards his house-breaking, and the thief his larcenies." Those who are convicted of polygamy regard themselves, and are so regarded by their friends, as martyrs, and think it no disgrace to be sent to the penitentiary.

The commission, in view of the present condition of the territorty as regards polygamy, does not think that Utah should be admitted as a state. "Should it be," the commission says, "it would not be long before the Gentile element, with its advanced civilization, its trade and its traffic, would be driven from the territory, and the Mormon theocracy be made supreme."

In concluding the report the commission says that congress should take no backward, or even wavering step in the enforcement of the laws against polygamy. The report is signed by G. L. Godfrey, chairman; R. S. Robertson and Alvin Saunders.

"TABERNACLE OF THE PEOPLE."

The Laying of the Corner Stone for the Enlarged First Baptist Church—Some Historic Facts.

Yesterday was a memorable one in the history of the First Baptist church of this city.

The edifice was built in 1867 during the pastorate of Rev. George Stevens, and although one of the largest Protestant churches in the city, it was too small to seat the congregation worshipping there.

The improvements now being made to the church will cost $8,000, and the audience room, when completed, will seat 1,600 people. It will be a handsome edifice and will be known as the "Tabernacle of the People," which inscription will be cut in stone and appear across the front of the building.

The laying of the corner stone took place yesterday forenoon, commencing at 11 o'clock. The exercises were brief and interesting. After an anthem by the choir, prayer by the pastor and a hymn sung by the congregation, an address appropriate to the occasion, "The Significance of Corner Stone Laying" was delivered by the pastor, Rev. S. A. Northrop, from the text, "What Mean Ye by These Stones."

This was followed by the laying of the corner stone and depositing of a Bible, articles of faith of the Baptist denomination, with names of the membership, the Indiana Baptist, of Indianapolis, the Journal and Messenger, of Cincinnati; the Standard, of Chicago, the Christian Herald, of Detroit; the Gazette, THE SENTINEL, the News and the Journal, of Fort Wayne, by Dossous Silvey, Carter, Polhamus and Gavin, assisted by Trustees Ferguson, Mills and McMahon.

Appropriate words in behalf of the deacons were then spoken by Mr. E. G. Anderson, followed by Mr. A. H. Philley. Mr. John M. Wort then spoke in behalf of the teachers, Mr. E. W. Lewis, superintendent, in behalf of the Sunday school teachers, and floral and fruit offerings for the corner stone were made by the Misses Belle Johnson, Chrissie Davis, Addie Davis, Fanny Lowry and Kittie Polhamus, each of the young ladies accompanying the offerings with a few appropriate words. A hymn by the choir, the doxology by the congregation and the benediction by the pastor closed the exercises.

HISTORY OF THE CHURCH.

The history of the Baptists in Fort Wayne dates back to 1820, when Rev. Isaac McCoy, under the appointment of the Baptist Triennial convention, came as a missionary to the Miami and Pottawatamia tribes of Indians, whose reservations were then located in this vicinity. In 1822, re-inforced by Rev. John Sears, who came as missionary to the Ottawas, he organized the first Baptist congregation in Fort Wayne. It had on its membership roll the names of eight whites, two Indians and one black man.

This primitive congregation was short-lived. Revs. McCoy and Sears, as missionaries, were called to other fields. The church work was left in charge of a brother of Rev. Sears and his death a few months afterward led to a disorganization of the congregation, the members worshipping with other denominations. This continued until 1837, when the congregation was reorganized with the following members signing the church roll: Richard Worth, Elizabeth Worth, John Fairfield, Jane Fairfield, William Worth, Sarah Swup, Hannah Worth, Meriam Sawtelle, Ann Archer and Elizabeth Morgan, to which list a few days afterwards was added several others, among whom was Ann Girrard.

Rev. Tinsdale was the first pastor. He was followed by Revs. William Corbin and William Cox in short pastorates and in October, 1841, Rev. William Gildersleve was secured at a salary of $300 a year. During his ministry a frame church was built on a lot donated by Samuel Hanna, which was moved in 1846 to the lot at the corner of Berry and Clinton streets, Revs. J. H. Dunlap, George Sleeper and H. D. Mason serving as pastors in succession.

In 1850 Rev. J. D. Meeson became pastor and afterwards came Rev. U. B. Miller, C. W. Rees, Stephen Wilkins and in 1861 Dr. G. E. Stevens, under whose ministry, in 1867, the church edifice on West Jefferson street, now being enlarged, was built. He was followed in 1869 by Dr. J. R. Stone and in 1881 by Rev. Stephen A. Northrop, the present pastor.

When Pastor Northrop came here the congregation numbered 190. To-day it has an actual membership of 790 and is one of the most prosperous church organizations in the city. Much of this wonderful growth is due to his earnest work. He is a man who "never lets any grass grow under his feet." Always busy, always pleasant in his pastoral labors, he is constantly making friends and working for the interest of his church. Yesterday was a proud day for him.

SEVENTH POINT

You should read THE CHICAGO DAILY NEWS because you can afford it. Price doesn't stand in the way. It's really the cheapest thing on earth. One cent means practically nothing—until you spend it. Then you may make it mean a great deal, according as you invest it. A thing is cheap if it costs little, and is worth much. THE DAILY NEWS is like a telegraph from the whole world to your brain. To keep it in constant working order costs you but one cent a day. That's why it's cheap—because it renders a great service for an insignificant price.

REMARK.—Its circulation is over 200 a day—over a million a week—and it costs by mail 25 cts. a month, four months $1.00,—one cent a day.

PACKARD & FIELD, ...

... world more ... long life, yet the ... people put off caring for ... health—not because they are really careless, but because we live our lives at such a pace we have not time to give the subject sufficient thought until we receive a reminder in the shape of a severe illness.

Then, too, we are constantly bewildered by the various schools of medicine, and the physicians who represent them, and often blunder in our choice of a doctor.

If people only knew that the very best health-keeper, life-preserver and disease preventer that has yet been discovered, is simmered down into a concentrated and very palatable form in the shape of New Style Pleasant Taste Vinegar Bitters, they would not hesitate a moment to try it.

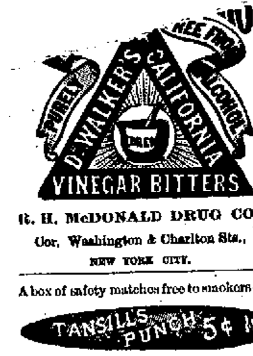

But they do not know. How can they know, when so many not only worthless, but positively injurious drugs are constantly flooding the market under various names and guises, that the New Style Vinegar Bitters is as bad as any of them?

... do not know, of course, unless they have the courage to try the New Style. It straightens out a tangled-up system in a very short while, and those who buy it once buy it always.

Why don't you try it, reader? It is sold by a responsible house, and is exactly as represented. It costs but a ... for a very large bottle. Try it ... you will never be so glad of anything in your life. Your druggist may not have it, but he will order it for you. Be sure it says New Style Pleasant Taste on carton and bottle before you take it. Try it, and you will feel happier than if you had found a gold mine, for it really is a mine—of health.

THE MAHONING ROAD.

The Locomotives on It Will Be Steaming Into This City in November, So It Is Said, Anyhow.

Every few days the question is put to our railroad reporter, "How is the Mahoning railroad getting along?"

It is a hard one to answer, for no person seems to know or is willing to give any definite information about it.

The road has had a peck of trouble—a bushel of it in fact—in Ohio, and has been in the courts for months on account of its financial embarassments, but this dispatch from Ottawa, Ohio, is encouraging and we give it for what it is worth:

"The New York, Mahoning & Western railroad is finished in this county from the Hancock county line to Glandorf, a distance of over fourteen miles and the good work of constructing the track of the railroad goes bravely on and it will be finished to Fort Wayne, Ind., its western terminal by the last of November at a cost of $60,000; the amount expended for building the railroad through this county being $24,000, the distance of the railroad being twenty-four miles. It is a solidly built railroad and when finished it will shorten the route from Chicago to New York, 100 miles less than the other railroads. From Fort Wayne the New York, Mahoning & Western makes a connection with some other railroad which goes on to Chicago."

Then here is another from Findlay, Ohio, which throws more light on the subject: "C. N. Haskell, of Ottawa, who is well known in Fort Wayne on account of his connection with the Mahoning road, has commenced suit in this county against the firm of Johnson, Fellows & Co., of New York, for $31,500. The plaintiff claims that when the above firm purchased the above road they agreed to pay off all indebtedness, and at this time the road owed him the above amount. The above firm is a very wealthy one, and the suit will prove of great interest and be hotly contested."

Mr. Smith has been a train dispatcher with the company for some time and is one of its most valued and competent employes. He is a young man and is in every way fitted for the position.

The bridges on the Pennsylvania railroad which were washed out last summer by the floods have nearly all been replaced with fine iron structures, and in rebuilding them the water openings have been so widened that no trouble is anticipated in the future from high ... In every case the stone abutments have been constructed with a view to laying four tracks, if necessary, in the future. The new bridges are all for a double track.

"Give Him $2 and Let Him Guess."

We once heard a man complain of feeling badly and wondered what ailed him. A humorous friend said, "Give a doctor $2 and let him guess." It was a cutting satire on some doctors who don't guess right. You need not guess what ails you when your food don't digest, when your bowels and stomach are inactive, and when your head aches every day, and you are languid and easily fatigued. You are bilious, and Dr. Pierce's Purgative Pellets will bring you out all right. Small, sugar coated, easy to take. Of druggists.

Advice to Mothers.—Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup should always be used when children are cutting teeth. It relieves the little sufferer at once; it produces natural, quiet sleep by relieving the child from pain, and the little cherub awakes as "bright as a button." It is very pleasant to take. It soothes the child, softens the gums, allays all pain, relieves wind, regulates the bowels and is the best known remedy for diarrhoea, whether arising from teething or other causes. Twenty-five cents a bottle.

Christie, was severely, but not dangerously burned, yesterday afternoon about 4 o'clock. It seems that Mamie was playing with a neighboring little girl, and by some means they procured matches, with which Mamie's clothes were set on fire. Her clothes were nearly all burned off as high as the waist, and she is burned to a blister from the knees to the waist. Dr. Allen was called and dressed the burns. He reports her as quite comfortable to-day, considering the nature of her injury.

CIRCUS, MENAGERIE, HIPPODROME.

Wild West, Fun, Glory, Rain, Mud, Music, Parade and a Grand Banquet Mark Forepaugh's Visit.

This afternoon Adam Forepaugh's all feature show gave a performance at the jail flats.

This circus day was not exceptional to the general rule of crowded streets and the adjuncts thereof, including music, hilarity, fun, peanuts, toy balloons, etc.

The parade started about 10:30 o'clock and was witnessed by thousands of people. The inclemency of the weather caused Adam Forepaugh, jr., the manager to order out only a portion of his pageant but that portion was admired by the multitudes that blocked the sidewalks and almost every available eminence along the line of march.

The tents were well filled this afternoon. To-night it is supposed the vast seating capacity under the canvass will be packed.

Appropriate to the question is mention of a grand banquet given last evening at Hotel Wayne. It was the twenty-sixth annual testimonial reception given by the members of the Great Forepaugh Social club and is tendered to the members of the big aggregation. Through the courtesy of Mr. and Mrs. John I. Boyle, press agent, a SENTINEL reporter found himself seated among the circus lights, and was a devoted auditor to some neat speeches, toasts and responses. Among those present were the following, some having been on the bills for twenty-five years and more:

Mr. and Mrs. Adam Forepaugh, Adam Forepaugh, jr., R. G. Campbell, general agent, W. C. Boyd, Miss Nelly Montrose, Miss Yates, Archie Daily, Orwin Hollis, James Jordan, Arthur Wood, Bert Johnson, S. H. Sanson, Jas. B. Macks, T. J. Ford, Tony Lowande, John Purvis, Judd Webb, Charles Watson, Harry Enoch, Charles Warner, H. D. Goetschius, Phil Gibbons, James Donahue, Red Harris, the Eugene Bros. R. Kelly, J. Ashby, the three Marvelles, Archie, Edward and Dan, Wm. Wilson, the three Cornelius, Pete, Henry and Williams, Rome Emery, Patsy Forepaugh, Wm. Moore, Tote Seegrest, Otho Twigg, M'lle Sivalo, Miss Sadie Connolly, Frank Goldie, Miss Sallie St. Clair, Mr. Harbeck and Mrs. Harbeck, Mr. and Mrs. Lew White, H. Fulton, J. McNulty, C. Z. Duke, Ed. Collins, John J. Cahill, Lout. Allen, Frank Nelson, Robbie Davis, Will Warner, M. Gardner, James Schruckley. There were sixty people in all at Mine Host McKinnie's tables.

The season of the circus opened at Philadelphia, April 22, and will close next Saturday, at Alliance, Ohio, making the season in twenty-four weeks, giving 288 performances.

One of the Forepaugh trains was wrecked at Scarboro, Iowa, September 19, causing a damage to the show of nearly $20,000 and badly injuring two canvasmen. The Cleopatra barge—worth alone $20,000—the Globe and the English Bell chariots and several lion cages were completely ruined, but the animals were saved uninjured. The cooking utensils were also lost. Adam Forepaugh, who was on the train himself, attributes the accident to carelessness on the part of the railroad employes and he will probably bring suit for damages.

MEMBERS OF M. E. CHURCH.

A Brief Biography of a Man Who Lived in Fort Wayne More Than Fifty Years.

(Communicated)

On Sabbath morning, September 22, 1889, Benjamin F. Rice passed quietly away from the companionship of earth to join the vast multitude of saved upon the other shore.

He had passed the allotted period of human life, dying in his 73rd year. He was born in Culpepper county, Virginia, September 9, 1807.

In his seventeenth year he came with his parents to Carroll county, Ohio, afterwards moving from there to Adams county, Indiana. In 1837 he moved to the vicinity and within the limits of this city. In August, 1839, he was united to Mary Kinsey and had just passed his golden marriage anniversary. Mr. Rice by the exercise of diligence in business and prudence in investment, became the possessor of a large fortune which will now be managed by his excellent wife and at her decease, Mrs. J. Grier will become heir, she being the only child.

Early in his life Mr. Rice connected himself with the M. E. church and was soon promoted to official relation, serving the church for many years as leader, steward and trustee.

In the death of this estimable citizen and quiet consistent Christian, we feel that we have left us an example that is worthy of imitation and in his death the Wayne street Methodist Episcopal church, of which the deceased was a member, has lost one of its most aged and honored members.

Indications.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 30.—Indiana—Rain; southwesterly winds; no change in temperature.

Mr. John Hanna, of the Olds' offices, while riding a bicycle Saturday afternoon, was run down by L. C. Reek, the cigar manufacturer, and his wheel was totally wrecked. Mr. Hanna has retained Mr. H. C. Hanna as counsel, and says he will enter suit for $150 damages.
